Last year over 1,500 scholar athletes were recognized by the USA Swimming Scholastic All American program. To download the SAA application form, go to "Member Services" and "Performance Recognition" on the USA Swimming website tool bar. Individual qualifying times are listed on the application form. Please follow all instructions and send a completed transcript along with a copy of your individual times to the tabulator listed on the application form.

To print out your individual times from the SWIMS database, go to "Times and Teams" on the USA Swimming website toolbar. Then select "Individual Times Search" and use July 1, 2009 to June 30, 2010 as the qualifying period. Once your times are shown on the screen, right click with your mouse and print your times out to send along with your application form and completed transcript. Please write your club name on the printout of your times.

If you have any questions please email times@usaswimming.org or email the tabulators listed on the application form.
